

Resignation of Stephen Best

Stephen Best has resigned by agreement as Director and Officer of Atlantic Carbon Group plc ("ACG").

Seth Schwartz, CEO of ACG, thanked Stephen for his service to the Company.

Stephen has been associated with ACG and its predecessors for 20 years having been first associated with the Stockton Mine back in 1999. His wealth of experience of surface coal mining in both the UK and USA goes back forty years. He started his mining career with AF Budge Mining at Biggin South Mine in County Durham UK in 1978 followed by roles with various mining companies before starting his own UK mining company in 1985.

Stephen is actively seeking other opportunities in the mining sector and he, and his family, will continue as major shareholders in ACG.
